

Undergraduate Applicant, Admit and Matriculant Trends

Stanford University, Office of Undergraduate Admission and Financial Aid (Fall 1950 - Fall 2022)

Covid Effect: More than the usual number of students
 * Deferring in 2020, and
 * Returning in 2021.

- Applicants : Students who applied during the admission cycle.
- Admits : Students who are admitted during the admission cycle.
- Admit rate : Number of admits divided by the number of applicants
- Matriculants : Students who intend to enroll during the Fall of the admission cycle (includes students who took a gap year)
- Yield : Number of matriculants divided by the number of admits.
